Bone-in beef carcasses supplied whole, as halves or as forequarters and hindquarters, for importers and boning plants that cut to their own market specification. Carcass supply depends on the destination's import rules and the available transport, so each request is reviewed route by route. Age category, fat cover and classification are agreed in the quotation.

Frequently asked questions

Do you supply forequarters and hindquarters separately?
Yes, forequarters and hindquarters can be quoted separately. Hindquarters are in higher demand, so prices and volumes differ; mention the split you need in the quote form.
