Product page

Hardy mountain and hill breeds raised extensively on natural pastures and moved with the seasons. Țurcană lambs carry a long, coarse fleece and the rams are often horned; Țigaie lambs have finer wool and frequently a dark or spotted face. The meat is firm and full of flavour, and these lambs are much sought after for traditional markets and seasonal demand, including the Eid season. We select the lambs to your specification and arrange inspection, certificates and transport.
